

R&D Capital – CTS Santé Partnership

R&D Capital is pleased to announce its new partnership with Campus des technologies de la santé (CTS).

The aim of this partnership is to facilitate access to tax credit financing for companies in the medical technology sector (“medical devices”) while offering them a structured framework of support. This partnership helps to further R&D Capital’s goal of investing up to 3 million dollars in this sector of activity.

Businesses eligible to R&D tax credits will benefit from financing from 1% per month, a disbursement deadline of 10 to 15 days, as well as a technological and technical support through a network of business partners, consultants and lawyers.

About CTS Santé:

CTS Santé is a medical technology business accelerator providing support to help companies fast track their business ventures and substantially enhance their chances of success. For more information, visit ctssante.com.

About R&D Capital:

R&D Capital is a Canadian financial institution specialized in financing federal and provincial refundable tax credits. Over the years, the company has developed its expertise in the financing of SR&ED tax credits in the medical technology sector. For more information, visit rdcapital.ca.
